DETAILS:

On January 22, 1974, MI T-1 advised that FRANK STELLOH's girl friend lives [redacted] and her identity is known to the Greenfield Police Department as she was recently involved in an automobile accident. Source advised that STEVE DE SALVO has been to this residence and FRANK STELLOH, of course, is a frequent visitor.

b6
b7C
b7D

Source advised [redacted] FRANK STELLOH has been a frequent visitor at the Centre Stage and presumably is visiting with BALISTRIERI. Source advised

Sources whose identities are concealed herein have furnished reliable information in the past except where otherwise noted.

MI 92-315

source did not know the reason for this as STELLOH, in the recent past, detested BALISTRIERI.

On February 8, 1974, MI T-2 advised FRANK STELLOH previously worked at Sally's Steak House in Milwaukee and was in charge of the maintenance personnel there. He apparently was sluffing off on his job and approximately one year ago was fired by SALLY. Informant described him as a very mean individual and source has heard STELLOH, in his time, was one of the few hit men for the Milwaukee hoodlums.

On February 25, 1974, MI T-3 advised that FRANK STELLOH and STEVE DE SALVO are constantly together, both at the Universal Builders and various other places around Milwaukee.

On February 22, 1974, [redacted] West Allis Police Department, advised his office has developed no further information regarding subject.

b6

On March 22, 1974, Detective [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, advised subject has been very inactive since the FBI raided Richie's Tavern in January.

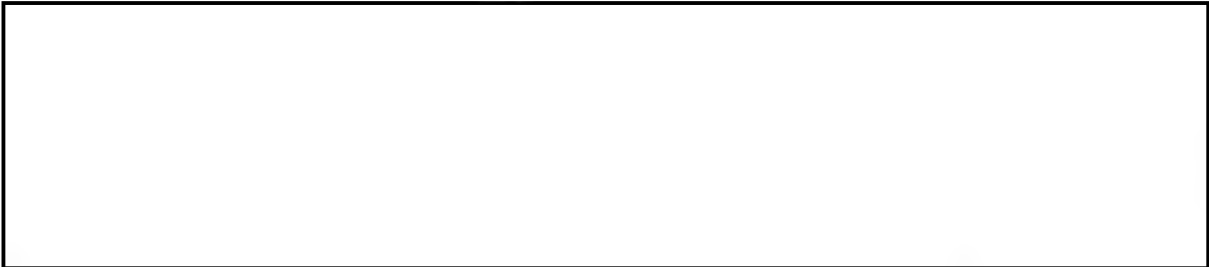

On April 5, 1974, MI T-3 advised that STEVE DE SALVO, along with FRANK STELLOH, were up in the northern part of Wisconsin in a reported attempt to sell aluminum siding. They were due to return sometime during the second week in April. Source advised that source felt and had heard that the reason they went up north was due to the increased "heat" being given to various hoodlum and Italian element by the FBI.

On April 25, 1974, MI T-4 advised that STELLOH lives approximately 25 miles southwest of Milwaukee on a dilapidated farmhouse.
